Although CPAs can now be licensed and receive commissions and/or contingent fees, you may not be interested in staying abreast of changes in tax law that may impact your clients and increasing your billable hours, our CPA Advantage program can meet your needs.	By establishing a relationship with an experienced, high-quality insurance professional, you can help your clients follow through on recommendations or suggestions that will help them meet their objectives. Your clients benefit from the security of knowing they are being directed to a firm they can trust. You benefit by being able to retain control of the follow-through as well as by being compensated for the referral.	If your are looking to expand your practice by providing an integrated approach to tax strategies and financial planning, our joint venture opportunities may interest you.	Any company can show you how to get into the insurance business. At Champion Agency, Inc. we will show you how to succeed. We have a proven methodology that is based on independent ethical standards.	Many CPAs are beginning to realize the advantages of being associated with a high-quality agency that provides access to the products, services, and technical administrative support that can back the recommendations they make to their clients. You may be interested in bringing these services in-house. Opening a branch office inside your firm allows you the opportunity to offer value-added services to clients by providing them with one-stop shopping

Depending on the model you choose and your level of commitment, a wide range of marketing and training programs are available to you.
